

Nadim T. Sawaya, CPP

Nadim has over 35 years of executive and operations management experience with General and Specialty Contractors. Nadim held key management and executive positions with Convergent Technologies, Stanley Security, Sysco, Siemens Building Technologies, Honeywell, Pinkerton Systems Integration, JWP Controls, Landis & Gyr Powers and Pauling-Rapco JV.

Nadim founded and managed Integrated Security Network (ISN), a division of Honeywell. At ISN, Nadim designed and delivered specialized training and support programs to Security and Systems Integrators with exceptional results. He developed the Certified Security Project Management (CSPM).

Nadim holds a MSCE Degree in Construction Management and a BS Degree in Civil Engineering from San Jose State University. He also holds a General Electrical Contracting License in the State of California, California Alarm Company Qualified Manager License and ASIS's Certified Protection Professional (CPP). He is also a Certified Trainer for CEDIA.